

Australian Government

mathscareers.org.au

Nurse Peta Kilsby

“My job is a paediatric nurse at the Royal Children’s Hospital. There is plenty of maths involved, especially percentages and fractions. We are constantly calculating.

Nursing is a fast-paced job. You are always required to think quickly, but safely. If you get a drug calculation wrong it can potentially be critical to the patient.”

maths:

make your career count

